

WORLD OF RADIO #1267, produced March 16, 2005 by Glenn Hauser
[for credits listen to show or consult DX Listening Digest]

- *New edition of my other program, Continent of Media 05-03, now available at <http://www.worldofradio.com> and <http://www.dxing.com>
- *At least two major SW radios are being discontinued: Drake R8B and Icom R75, Universal Radio website announces, still stocks some; Satellit 800 also removed from Drake website
- *R. Okapi, Hirondeille Foundation station in Congo DR, was difficult catch with own 10 kW transmitter on 11690, but good signal now relayed by South Africa at 0400-0600 in French, heard in western North America <http://www.radiookapi.net>
- *SW Radio Africa, for Zimbabwe, stepping up broadcasts to combat jamming built up to extreme level. 1600-1700 on 11845 via Ascension; via somewhere 1700-1800 on 11705, 1800-1900 on 11995; along with South Africa 1600-1900 on 3230, 6145. Jammed with 1 kHz tone on 11845, but rotary jammer on 11705, 11995; keep an eye on <http://www.swradioafrica.com> for updates, jamming comments
- *SWRA morning 0300-0500 not jammed yet, on 3230, 1197; China and Iran may have helped Zimbabwe set up jammers. Daily News says jamming comes from Thornhill Air Base, with Chinese equipment
- *11845 heard and verified in California, but SWRA wishes those in Zimbabwe could hear it as well
- *BBC Monitoring's comprehensive guide to media in Rwanda: in DXLD 5-042
- *High Adventure Canada plans to set up a SW station in Kampala, Uganda, by this summer, in deal with FM station and HCJB engineering; low power. But Pentecostals tend to exaggerate
- *Joe Talbot reports from Galkayo, Somalia: R. Galkayo, 6980, is 100-watt ham transceiver like a pirate; only other active SW are R. Mogadishu on 6960, R. Hargeisa on 7530; 7 MHz area overrun by rogue radio-telephone setups, making 40m unusable by hams daytime in Kenya, Somalia, and spreading to 20m, 49m or any frequency up to 30 MHz
- *A-05 refers to broadcast season starting March 27 when Europe goes on DST a week before we do; lots of such schedules follow
- *Sudan Radio Service, A-05 via UK: 03-05 11665, 05-06 15325, 15-19 or 15-18 17660; partly in English
- *Polisario station heard in Portugal at 0740 on MW 700 and SW 7460, not always audible on SW: in Spain on 7460 in Spanish at 2330
- *Previously unknown private MW in Nigeria, Nagarta Radio, 60 kW, 747 kHz from Kaduna since March 7, 2004 (or 2005?)
- *More details on BBC drastic reduxion in SW to Americas; dropping WYFR at 0000-0300 on 11835; A-05 planned without specifying sites: presumably 6195, 5975 and 15190 no longer Antigua but elsewhere. To Carib, 10-11 6195, 11-13 11865, 13-14 15190, 21-2130 11675; 21-22 15390, via USA? 22-01 5975. CAm: 12-13 9605 which is WYFR; SAm 12-13 15190; 02-03 5975, 9825, 12095, some probably Ascension. At other times, including our prime evening hours, try to pull in

BBC to Europe, Africa or Asia
